A Call To Protect The Sacred

Why does Ahu'ena Heiau need our support and protection at this time? Many of you know that recently The King Kamehameha's Kona Beach Hotel was sold to IWF KKH, LLC of Santa Barbara, California and Honolulu, Hawai'i.

The new owners claim that they own Ahu'ena Heiau and that they have the authority to set the direction of the course of life for Ahu'ena Heiau.

In truth, the new owners may continue to block access to the Heiau from the general public. They plan to continue commercial activities such as commercial lū'au and other events that involve the sale of liquor that desecrate the Heiau. Here, sacred rites were performed for centuries.

With 20 days notice and zero opportunity for discussion of the matter of making arrangements for a new lease of any kind, IWF KKH, LLC carried out their plans to evict Kūlana Huli Honua from the archive they have built to support the life and care of Ahu'ena Heiau in a continuum since the 1975 restoration.

Aloha e Nā 'Ōiwi a e ka Po'e o Ke Ao, (Greetings to Hawai'i Natives and People of the World),

Ahu'ena Heiau is the first restored Heiau in all of Hawai'i of the modern era. Ahu'ena Heiau was the personal temple of Kamehameha the Great who restored and rededicated the Heiau to Lono, the god of healing and prosperity of the land and people. Here, the first capital of the Kingdom of Hawaii was proclaimed upon the unification of the islands under Kamehameha I.

Kūlana Huli Honua upholds the legacy of not only David Kahelemauna Roy, Jr., restorer of this Heiau, but of the legacy of Ka Mō'i, the King himself. I'm a founding member of the board of directors for Kūlana Huli Honua as I believe in the goals and missions of the organization as set by its co-founder, Kahu David Kahelemauna Roy, Jr. "Mauna" was my very good friend (hoaloha) and longtime colleague on missions such as the creation of the Kaloko-Honokōhau National Park.

This is a call to all - near and far, to come and support the traditional cultural practices of Ahu'ena Heiau. Practitioners of the cultural arts, come to honor and pay tribute to our King and to our ancestors. Come to make visible your love for the true Hawai'i.

Your support of Kūlana Huli Honua is your support for the true Hawai'i that we all hold dear.
